

Weekend Games

Well its been a min since Ive been on here. We left for Bonyhad Friday it was a 3 hour trip. Feels like going to country. This tournament had 4 teams. Well in the Tournament we went 1-2 i know pretty suckie huh. Well we got 3rd place in the tournament. First game we lost we were killn them. 46-26 at half, but unfornately we didnt finish the game strong and i think we lost by 8 or so. 2nd game we lost i cant remember the score but i think we lost by 15+. Everyone I know your not going to believe me but i got punched in the face. Yup got stole on lol, i wanted to hit her back but i didnt. I dont know how it works fighting ova here but i do know im not trying to be in jail lol. 3rd game we won by 8 i think. We played them in the beginning but it was a much closer game this time. It was fun though. 1st time for the tour recieving any trophies. Great Job huh!!!

Today is the last game of the tour, starts at 5:30pm. We are playing a team that we played before that kicked our tails but hopefully we can get some revenge this time. Well thats all for today and i will respond as soon as possible of the outcome of the game!
